Norfolk, VA – The Virginia Symphony Orchestra, the Commonwealth's preeminent professional symphony orchestra, will appear live in concert on Sunday, July 25, at 8pm for a free evening performance at Town Point Park along the Downtown Norfolk Waterfront.

Presented by The Perry Family Foundation &  TOWNEBANK

Produced by Norfolk Festevents in partnership with the City of Norfolk and presented by The Perry Family Foundation and TowneBank, this year's show, conducted by the world-renowned Morihiko Nakahara, features a wide variety of performances, including pieces from Mozart, Strauss, Rossini, Ponchielli, Williams, and many more.

Admission to the event is free and open to the public. Town Point Park opens at 6pm for pre-concert picnics with the show beginning at 8pm and concluding at 10pm. Gourmet artisan foods and beverages will be available for purchase.

One of Virginia's most celebrated musical, educational and entrepreneurial arts organizations, the Virginia Symphony Orchestra is celebrating its 100th Anniversary season. Innovation has been at the heart of the VSO's narrative since its inception, and the VSO continues to challenge expectations and push the boundaries of what an American orchestra can be.
