Norfolk, VA – The 1970s funk legends Ohio Players will headline Saturday night at the 44th Annual Norfolk Harborfest Music, Food & Maritime Festival at Town Point Park along the Downtown Norfolk Waterfront.

Ohio Players will perform on day two of America's largest, longest-running free maritime festival on Saturday, June 6, 2020 at 8:15pm. Admission to the 44th Annual Norfolk Harborfest is free and open to the public.

Known for their plethora of chart-topping hits such as "Fire" and "Love Rollercoaster," Ohio Players came into musical prominence in the 1970s as true pioneers of street funk and underground R&B. Since their emergence in the mid '70s, Ohio Players have traveled the world and have registered 14 gold and platinum albums for their labors.

Currently, the band consists of 10 members, including four original members: James "Diamond" Williams (drums), Billy Beck (keyboard), Clarence Willis (lead guitar), and Robert Kuumba (percussion). Ohio Players remain one of the few bands from the 1970s era who still perform all of their music using no computers or samplers for enhancement.

Ohio Players' sound still ebbs through the modern-day music scene. A long list of artists has sampled or re-recorded their material, including Snoop Dogg, Soundgarden, Puff Daddy, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Salt & Pepper, and many more.

Ohio Players join Moon Taxi as headliners for the 44th Annual Norfolk Harborfest. The festival is free and open to the public.

Moon Taxi, who will be headlining Friday night, and Ohio Players are the first announced performers for the 44th Annual Norfolk Harborfest. Additional performances will be announced soon.
