Norfolk Harborfest Returns to Downtown Norfolk Waterfront June 7-9

Date: Thursday, May 30, 2024

Website: bit.ly/Harborfest2024

Norfolk, VA – The 48th Annual Norfolk Harborfest: Music, Food & Maritime Festival returns to Town Point Park Friday-Sunday, June 7-9, 2024, bringing a symphony of maritime wonder to the Downtown Norfolk Waterfront.

Adventure, entertainment, and maritime magic unite for a once-in-a-lifetime experience during America's largest, longest-running, free maritime festival. Take in the annual Parade of Sail, which features military and character vessels among other ships from around the world, and then watch as one of the biggest fireworks displays on the East Coast and a captivating drone show light up the night sky, creating a rainbow of colors across the Elizabeth River. During the day, immerse yourself in naval and coast guard history with interactive exhibits and thrilling demonstrations. Incredible live performances from both national headliners and local talents take center stage, while an array of culinary delights keep you fueled throughout this iconic three-day festival.

The festival is FREE & open to the public. For more information, visit bit.ly/Harborfest2024.

OFFICIAL POSTER

HARBORFEST 2024
NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

This year's poster artist, Robert Lauer, presents Fête Du Port: A Tribute to Eugène Boudin, which promises a stunning homage to the iconic festival. Robert Lauer's Fête Du Port, meaning "Harbor Festival" in French, pays tribute to French artist Eugène Boudin (1824-1898). From the perspective of Waterside Marina at dusk, the artwork borrows colorful flags from Harborfest's Parade of Sail, twisting in the breeze to evoke the shifting movement of clouds before the vivid colors of a setting sun. The 2024 Official Harborfest Poster will be available for purchase throughout the event weekend.

About The Artist

Robert Lauer holds a Studio Art minor from Washington & Lee University (W&L) and a Master's from the College of Design at N.C. State University. His career has spanned several international corporations in the United States, Germany, Japan, and China, where he served as a Director of Industrial Design. Lauer honed his skills in watercolors, oils, and acrylics under the guidance of I-Hsiung Ju at W&L, donating his artwork for charitable events.

Upon returning to the Tidewater area of Virginia, Lauer's works focused on exploring the natural vivid colors found at sunset along our waterways stretching from the Northern Neck of Virginia to the Currituck Sound of North Carolina. His works capture the interplay of sky and light on water, balancing the harmony of simple hidden geometry with strategically placed focal points. A proponent of Stephen Quiller's color theory, the majority of his colors are hand-mixed from just 5 pigments and applied with layered washes. His ability to integrate art, design, and marketing in his career is a testament to his exceptional skills and expertise.

Robert Lauer is a member of the Chesapeake Bay Artist Association and an Associate Artist at The d'Art Center, 740 Boush St, Norfolk, VA 23510. Prior to Harborfest, Robert was selected for three juried fine art shows this spring, including Norfolk's Stockley Gardens, Richmond's Arts in The Park, and Williamsburg's Art On The Square. His works can be seen online at RWLauer.com and StravitzArtGallery.com, or in person at the d'Art Center and the Stravitz Gallery, Virginia Beach.
