Caricature Artist

New festival artist, Jed Mickles, will be animating guests' portraits along Jackson Square, inside festival grounds Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

One Man Band

New to the Festival this year, Eric Haines is a classic one man Band, with a bass drum on his back, a banjo over his shoulder, and plenty of bells and whistles everywhere else! Kids and adults will have to opportunity to play along on maracas, spoons and in true bayou fashion a washboard equipped with a cowbell!

Carrie B Paddleboard Cruise

Bayou guests can experience the romance, history and fun aboard a 19th century replica of a Mississippi paddle wheeler. She will be on site at select times throughout the weekend providing short cruise excursions as well as a place to sit back, relax and cool off!

WWOZ, 90.7 FM

New this year, we welcome WWOZ 90.7 FM, who bring New Orleans music to the Universe! The volunteer powered, listener supported New Orleans community will be on-site and sponsoring the WWOZ Stage under The Missing Kidney Tent. The Guardians of Groove will be broadcasting portions of their Bayou Boogaloo Music and Cajun Food Festival experience live back to their listeners in New Orleans.

Festival Chefs

Festevents is proud to highlight the following authentic festival chefs from Louisiana:

Ms. Linda Green, The Ya-Ka-Main Lady:

A New Orleans native and a culinary icon, Linda Green, aka Miss Linda, has fed almost everyone in the New Orleans – as well as a good portion of tourists who have come to a number of festivals.

The NOLA Crawfish King, Chris "Shaggy" Davis

Chris "Shaggy" Davis has made his living from traditional Louisiana outdoor cooking for over 20 years. His company, NOLA Crawfish King, caters crawfish and crab boils, cochon de lait-style pig roasts, and a variety of other traditional Southern fare.

Chef Woody Ruiz

Woody Ruiz, his omnipresent dog Bug, and his tent and grills for Woody's Fish Tacos are all familiar sights at neighborhood festivals and outdoor markets around New Orleans.

Chef Curtis Moore:

The Praline Connection began as a home delivery service targeting career women who were too busy to prepare home cooked meals for their families. Curtis opened their first location on Frenchman Street, in New Orleans, LA in 1990 and the rest has been culinary history.

Troy Brocato / Couyon's Cajun Cookin

Troy Brocato was born in Melville, Louisiana in the heart of Cajun County. After his enlistment in the US Navy ended where he served in Desert Storm and Desert Shield, he returned to Louisiana and headed to New Orleans. He was mentored by World Renowned Chef and Troy's Uncle, Chef Paul Prudhomme. Troy worked at K-Paul's Louisiana Kitchen for 12 years.

Cook Me Somethin' Mister

A true New Orleans family recipe turned into a business in 2010 when Kristen Preau, "Jambalaya Girl," started Cook Me Somethin' Mister as a new NOLA food brand, packaging her Dad's recipe for Jambalaya as an easy to make seasoned Jambalaya Rice.

NOLA Boils

Based in New Orleans, Nola Boils is South Louisiana's premier catering company. They specialize in the very best on-site seafood boils and provide first-rate local cuisine. This small team provides large seafood boils and a down to earth NOLA experience.

The Arts Market of New Orleans

The unbelievably successful Arts Market of New Orleans features countless artists from the Louisiana artist community. Boogalooers will have a chance to meet the artists who will be onsite selling their art and sharing their stories. This is a great opportunity to buy one of a kind artwork that represents the essence of New Orleans.
